Knowledge Exchange Day

Thursday, 8 May 2025

9.00 am – 4.30 pm

Building 903, Room 332*
314-390 Khyber Pass Rd,
Newmarket, Auckland

HOPE FOUNDATION for Research on Ageing

Who should attend the HOPE Foundation Knowledge Exchange Day?

Students, Masters/PhD researchers, Advanced Trainees, general public - anyone interested in the field of ageing research.

Why attend the HOPE Foundation Knowledge Exchange Day?

An opportunity for emerging researchers to present their research work - any discipline related to ageing

Hear from leading New Zealand researchers in the field of ageing

Network, be inspired, share knowledge

Cross discipline collaboration

Submit an Abstract: Closing date 24 April 2025

Registration closes 2 May 2025

No cost - Lunch, morning and afternoon tea provided

See our website for more details, to register and submit an abstract:
https://hopefoundation.org.nz/events/knowledge-exchange-25/

 Physical Address and Newmarket directions

Ray Meyer Building 314-390 Khyber Pass Road.

We are directly across the road from the Grafton train station; by bus, disembark on Park Road at either stop 7230 or 7231 depending on the direction you are travelling from – if using public transport or walking, please enter Gate 2 on Khyber Pass Road

If driving, please enter Gate 3 on Khyber Pass Road and sign in at reception. Building 903 Room 332 (follow the signs to CCREATE-AGE).